Need help building rapport between you and your assigned CASA child? Consider introducing the Soccer Ball Activity at your next visit! Ask the child some fun questions to spark their imagination and write their answers down in the soccer ball's hexagons. You can do this in one sitting or several, taking breaks as needed, even playing with the ball as you discuss. You can also let the child know your answers when appropriate. The results: You will learn new things about the child and what they value. And they will receive a soccer ball from you covered in things that are important to them!
